

Editor, Press-Herald:

We respectfully take this opportunity to express the appreciation of the members of the Torrance Fire Fighters Association to the City Council for the prompt and considered action regarding the postponement of the ordering of the examination for chief of the Torrance Fire Department.

The members of our organization felt very strongly about this matter, as indicated in our recent letter.

Again, thank you for the prompt and equitable action.

Sincerely,
HOWARD N. SCHNEIDER
President
RICHARD L. DEARMITT,
Chairman, Safety and Welfare Committee

Editor, Press-Herald:

The Board of Directors of the Torrance YWCA would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation and thanks to you for your assistance in presenting our publicity and, in particular, for the full page you gave us on our summer program.

The YWCA is trying to build a well rounded program to meet the needs and desires of the people of Torrance. To do this we must have good publicity. You have been most kind and helpful and we would like you to know how much we appreciate all you have done.

We hope our future efforts will be as successful as our past has been. Many thanks again for your guidance.

Sincerely,
MRS. NAOMI McVEY,
President

(Note: News about the Torrance YWCA is handled by the Press-Herald Women's Editor, Miss Edna Cloyd.)

Quartets In Concert

Gospel Concerts, a non-profit organization, will present its first concert of the fall season Friday and Saturday at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium. The program will begin at 8 p.m.

Appearances by the Blackwood Brothers Quartet, Hovie Lister and the Statesmen Quartet, and the singing Speer Family will be featured.

During the concert, the Blackwood Brothers Quartet will receive a special award for selling more than a million albums. The quartet is the first gospel group to top the one million mark in sales.

Muir Hike Completed By Scouts

Members of Boy Scout Troop 65, sponsored by the Hickory School PTA, have completed a 58-mile hike along the John Muir Trail in the Sierra Nevada Mountains.

Thirteen members of the troop completed the hike while a small unit remained at a base camp in the vicinity of Bishop to practice scout skills.

Hiking along the John Muir Trail were Marshall Berliner, David Motherwell, Jim Ogawa, Doug Paulin, Mark Ramsey, Dennis Richardson, Mike Rigos, Steve Ritchie, and Craig West. Scoutmaster John van Pairen, assistant scoutmaster Art Gonzales, and George Ogawa, a committee chairman, accompanied the boys.

Stops were made at Golden Trout Lake, Aspen Meadow, McClure Meadow, Sapphire Lake, and Little Pete Meadows. The youths ended the 58-mile trek at South Lake after crossing Bishop Pass.

Bar Association Plans Golf Day

Members of the Harbor and Long Beach Bar Associations will hold a golf day prior to a joint meeting Friday, Sept. 23, according to Harry Root, in charge of the event.

Golf foursomes will tee off at the Virginia Country Club, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m., with a social hour set for 6:30.

Homeowners to Discuss Pending Incorporation

The Palo del Amo Woods Homeowners Association will meet tonight to discuss the proposed incorporation of Dominguez, according to Roy Gerson, acting president of the group.

The session will be held at the Retail Clerks Union Hall, 25949 Belle Porte Ave., Harbor City, at 7:30 a.m.

Jack Clelland, deputy to Supervisor Burton W. Chace, will discuss the proposed incorporation and its effects on the Palo del Amo Woods area.

Following the meeting, the group will be polled to determine if the homeowners will support or oppose the proposed incorporation proceedings. If the homeowners vote to seek exclusion from the city of Dominguez, representatives will present a petition at a hearing scheduled Sept. 21.

Limited babysitting services will be provided at the meeting. Parents are asked to leave infants at home or to provide a car bed or stroller for the infants.

New Entries Readied for County Fair

Two more Torrance residents this week entered competition at the Los Angeles County Fair, due to open Friday for a 17-day run.

Adelle Brown, 18406 Wilton Place, has entered hand painted china in the domestic arts competition and Steven Lundblad, 911 Cranbrook Ave., has entered an aquarium in the rare fish competition.

More than 8,000 exhibitors are competing for $224,000 in prize money this year.

First Aid Class Set In Gardena

An advanced Red Cross first aid course is being offered at the Gardena Civic Center, 1700 W. 162nd St., each Wednesday morning.

The five sessions will conclude Wednesday, Oct. 5. Persons interested in qualifying for the Red Cross Standard First Aid card may enroll at the class or call the Red Cross Service Center in San Pedro.

Tom Lee of Gardena is the instructor for the free course.

"Like all first aid courses offered by the Red Cross, prevention of accidents is emphasized above all else in the advanced course," Lee said.

Songwriters Will Meet On Saturday

Members of the Vel-de-Nez Songwriters Club will meet for the first time Saturday at 7 p.m. at the VFW Hall, 1128 W. Anaheim St., Wilmington.

A program of new songs by amateur and professional musicians will be presented following a short business meeting.

Membership in the club is open to all area songwriters. Membership information is available by writing to Post Office Box 248, Lomita.

Entertainers Saturday will include Rita Moll, who will sing a new song written by Elizabeth Stevens titled "Second Chance," Emmy Ackerman, who will present the club's number two song, "Oriental Moon of Viet Nam," Jesse Allen, who will present several of his own compositions, and the Twilight Ramblers, the club's regular band.

DEVELOP PACEMAKER

The pacemaker, a transistorized device which stimulates the normal rhythm of the heart beat for victims of heart trouble, was developed by medical researchers at the Buffalo, N. Y., Veterans Administration hospital.
